

INTRODUCTION

This book adds to the vast array of messages that touch on the temple of God. We are not skilled writers as in the ways of this world but our pen is steady and sure because it is from the hand of our Master. God has taken me through many years of preparation in terms of first hand experiences for this message. Some of those experiences were fiery experiences, that did not look funny when I was going through them, but I glory in His name because I see the end of the matter now. The Lord told me that he took me through all of those spiritual experiences not just for my good and consummation but for the edification of the body of Christ. The Lord has confirmed over and over again from the days of my youth, that I must tell the world what He showed me inside His temple. These things I write about are first hand experiences I have gone through, not just any thought up fictional tale.

Of a truth there is nothing Hidden in God that will not be revealed. It is like the dawning of the day which no man can fight or push back. God is opening up His tabernacle in the Heavens in this hour, so that all men may see the truth and live. Truth is light and light is life, it is only as we take a hold of His precious truths that we can once again have the victory over the evil that hold's humanity captive.

God had spoken through His Prophets about a revival that will sweep across this world and bring people back to their rest and back to their glory in God. The revival is already here with God doing His work in the normal silent unnoticed way He did things in the past. The works of God are so mysterious that even family members, those close to you in this world and some brethren might not notice it. Remember the Israelites, while they were being delivered from Egyptians which is a type of deliverance of the children of God from this dark world. On two occasions God enveloped the Israelites with light and enveloped the Egyptians with thick darkness [Exodus 10:22-23, Exodus 14:19-20]. The darkness was so thick that the Egyptians could not see the Israelites while the Israelites could see them. At that point in time all activity in the camp of the Israelites was hidden from Egyptians which like I earlier on said is a type of the world. In likewise manner when God begins to move with His spirit and truth to deliver His chosen ones, not all notice His move of the spirit.

The revival of God is ignited by an abundant supply of His spirit. Like fuel the spirit causes an ignition within men which causes men to see the vision of His glory more clearly. The Supply of His spirit causes the holy enquirer to arise from His bed of ignorance and ascend into the glory of God. The Prophet Joel prophesied concerning this outpour of God's spirit.

Joel 2:28-32 And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions: 29 And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit. 30 And I will shew wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke. 31 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come. 32 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the remnant whom the LORD shall call.

The deliverance and victory we seek comes only after the outpour of the spirit of God. Awareness in relation to our true nature and God's kingdom comes forth as the spirit is poured upon us. The spirit comes to teach us all things concerning our inheritance in God and leads us into that inheritance. The spirit communicates from the deep resources within God, it communicates to our inner being with is spirit. So we have a scenario of deep communicating with deep. Receiving the deep thoughts of God is the key to our salvation [1 Corinthians 2:9-12]. No wonder Jesus always says He who has ears, let Him hear what the spirit says to the Church. We should be spiritually awakened to perceive and receive from God as He communicates to us by His spirit in this last hour.

To those who receive illumination from Gods spirit, more will be given, and to those who do not receive the little knowledge that they have will be taken away from them. Either the light of the glory God arises upon you or deep gross darkness covers you like the nations all about us, there is no staying on the borderline in between. That is why we should invest resources and time into receiving spiritual enlightenment from God. We receive from Him by separating ourselves unto God and quietly meditating daily on His thoughts in relation to us. It requires disciple, patience, focus and endurance for us to implement the principle of continuity in his truth. Continuity can be at times difficult because of the dark world that we physically find ourselves in. The only thing that can keep us in his adulterous plane of existence is His deep revelation word that keeps us occupied in Him. The Psalmist in Psalms 119 asked God to keep Him from vanity and cause Him to behold wonderful things out of His law.

Like Paul wrote in His letters we should not despise prophesy but we should try all. I say this because some get turned off when spiritual things are being preached. Some get scared of going into error, while for others it is not appealing to them. This topic is not preached in majority of the churches who go by the normal traditional norms, but remember that traditions of men have no place in God's kingdom. As we grow in the true knowledge, in the true liberty and in the love of God, all traditional knowledge will be wiped out. The only knowledge that will stand the test of His fire is the doctrine of love and grace in God's eternal invisible kingdom.

I write all these things so that the reader will carefully read through the pages of this book and by the spirit comprehend the wonderful thoughts God has towards us.

The bible as we know, dedicated lots of pages on the Tabernacle and the temples of God. The New King James version of the bible mentions the words 'TABERNACLE' 320 times, 'TEMPLE' 370 times, 'SANCTUARY' 158 times and "HOUSE OF GOD/LORD" 320 times. It is only to be expected that much space and emphasis in the bible was given to these topics, because they were the dwelling places of God, and the bible which is a written form of the word of God revolves round God. Israel's greatness and fame depended on God's glory in His Temple in their midst.

This topic is grand and of enormous importance because it talks about God's dwelling place. Remember how much emphasis we once placed on our own homes, remember how we wanted it to fit into your very taste and desire. Home is a place where we seek comfort, shelter, rest and peace after going about a risky day's business. A man's home reflects a man exactly the way He is. His financial status and mental state are all seen by observing His house. In likewise manner we ought to know that God's Temple reflects His very attributes of peace, love, joy and riches in glory above all that can be thought of in Heaven and on earth. We who are laborers in His house also ought to know that which is befitting for the king as we build along.

The Psalmists wrote Psalms on the Temple saying a day in the Temple is better than a thousand years elsewhere [Psalm 84:10]. They also spoke of safety and blessing that was associated with the Temple of God [Psalm 27:4-5]. The Prophets of old also prophesied of glory, salvation and healing that will be available in God's House at the end of days. Isaiah prophesied about the end times when nations will flow unto that glory that will be revealed in the house of God. [Isaiah 2:2]

Studying the mysterious details of God's Temple no doubt opens our eyes to deep thoughts of God. We also get to understand His salvation plan for all men. We begin to comprehend the hope of our calling as Christians and the exceedingly great things He has prepared for those who love Him. The Temple or the Tabernacle or the House of God had its unique pattern thought out by God from the beginning. We know that locked up in God's thoughts are always thoughts of good, thoughts of salvation, thoughts of peace and victory for all men. His thoughts are light and truth because in Him the originality of all things is brought forth. As long as we continue to comprehend things outside His thoughts we remain in darkness and death. All we have to do is to comprehend the depths of the lovely plans He has laid in store for us. We do this by searching out His word in silent meditation.
